

A Master of Philosophy with specialisation in Integrated Water Management

M Phil degree details

- Offered from the first semester 2010 on the Monash South Africa campus in Ruimsig, Johannesburg
- Full time over 18 to 24 months
- Comprises four course units (first semester) and a research thesis
- Focus on interfaces between science, policy and management
- Internationally-recognised degree endorsed by four leading Australian Universities

- Lectures and supervision by various experts from South Africa and Australia
- Small intake of students to allow personal coaching and mentoring
- Attractive scholarships available

Admission criteria

- A four-year qualification or equivalent honours degree
- 70% achievement or higher in this qualification
- Proficiency in written and spoken English

It is recommended that applicants have a science background, research aptitude, an interest in multi-disciplinary water issues and relevant work experience.

More information

Contact the Office of the Deputy Pro Vice Chancellor of Research

- Tel: 011 950 4143
- Email: hester.stols@adm.monash.edu
- Web: www.monash.ac.za/research/water-research-node

Deadline for registration and scholarship application: 15 January 2010.

MONASH South Africa

A campus of Monash University Australia

Monash is one of the world's first truly international universities with a presence on four continents. Monash strives to equip its graduates to lead their communities and disciplines and to conduct research that will transform lives for the better.

www.monash.edu.au / www.monash.ac.za

Monash South Africa is registered with the Department of Education as a private education institution under the Higher Education Act 1997
Registration number: 00HF02

INTERNATIONAL WATERCENTRE

With its head office in Brisbane and a global collaborative network, the International WaterCentre specialises in preparing leaders to make a difference in the world by addressing real water management issues.

www.watercentre.org